7 Ways to Get Ahead at an Online

Career Fair

Suggestions on how to be prepared for your next online recruiting opportunity

An online job fair, like last week's Think Beyond the Label Online Career Fair, is a great opportunity to meet prospective employers and develop your network of contacts. These connections can also help you acquire sound job search advice from seasoned recruiters, and increase your chances for a formal interview and/or job offer. Because job fair recruiters meet with a large number of candidates at an online event, it can take more than one contact with them to move yourself to the next phase of the recruiting process. Persistence and professionalism can help you separate yourself from other candidates. Read more...
